October 30-31 and November 1

Nevada Day Clothing Exhibit

This exhibit features vintage clothing from the late 19th century through the 1970s. Evening gowns and tuxedos, casual dresses, jewelry, hats and shoes worn by members of the Dangberg family will be presented in the various rooms of the Dangberg home. Photographs, letters and other items that explain the story behind much of the clothing and jewelry will also be displayed. This is the perfect way to enhance a Nevada Day weekend.

December 4-6

Home Ranch for the Holidays

Toys from the 19th and 20th centuries are the focus of this holiday celebration, with the Home Ranch residence lit up for the season in vintage and modern decorations. Items planned for the display include a unique four-room dollhouse and dolls, sports equipment from the 1920s to the 1950s, and games dating from 1870 through the 1940s. Christmas greeting cards will send wishes for a happy holiday from the past to the present while pianists play carols on the Dangberg's 1916 grand piano.
