

WALKER RIVER STATE RECREATION AREA HUNTING BOUNDARY DESCRIPTIONS

Pitchfork Ranch

The Pitchfork Ranch holds 7 miles of the celebrated East Walker River open for exploration. Hunting is allowed in designated areas only beginning at the south end of the WRSRA cabins and continues southward to the Pitchfork boundary at the Squeeze Chute day use area. Hunting is also permitted beginning on the north end of the Pitchfork fields (duck pond fence line) and extends north to the property line boundary. Hunting is NOT allowed north of the WRSRA Cabins, within developed areas of the Pitchfork Ranch, or on the west side of the river from the cabin fence line north to the Pitchfork property boundary. Refer to the WRSRA hunting map for defined boundaries.

Rafter 7

The Rafter 7 Ranch is located 21 miles south of Yerington and approximately 12 miles south of Pitchfork Ranch along the East Walker River. Rafter 7 includes 3,000 acres of land and several miles of incredible riparian habitat. The diversity of native vegetation and meandering undisturbed river present an ecological gem in the Walker Basin. The east bank of the property has been opened for day use public access to allow for fishing, hiking, wildlife viewing, and hunting. Archery and shotgun hunting is allowed in designated areas only on the east side of the river beginning at the East Walker Road bridge and continuing south along the river to the southern property line. Hunting and public access is NOT allowed west of the East Walker River. Refer to the WRSRA hunting map for defined boundaries.

The "Elbow"/Big Horn Camping area and Ravenal

Hunting is allowed within WRSRA property at the Elbow and Ravenal Units. Hunting is NOT allowed within 500 feet of any occupied campsite within Bighorn and Two Trees campgrounds. Per NAC 407.105 target shooting is prohibited in all areas of the park. Refer to the WRSRA hunting map for defined boundaries.

All other WRSRA lands are closed to hunting at this time. Failure to follow WRSRA park rules, regulations, or boundaries will result in citation and/or trespass from the Park.**
